For the prevention and cure
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from Peter Graham, living near Middleburg, Loudoun county, Va. on the night of the 25th of March last, a very likely Negro girl, named ANN, purchased of Wm. Noland, living at Aldie, Loudoun county, whose family she was raised in. She is of a yellow complexion, round faced, thick lips with large staring eyes, and rather delicate featured for a slave;—small feet, a tolerable ready speech, and mild with it; about 18 years of age, middle size, and very well made; rather thick, about 5 feet high from appearance. She had on when she went away a dress of coating cloth, made in a coat and jacket, with skirts of a brown snuff color. I have reason to believe she is in or near Philadelphia or New-York. I will give fifty dollars reward if taken in Fauquier, Loudoun, Prince William, or Fairfax counties, or the District of Columbia, if taken in any other county or state, and secured in any jail, so that I obtain information and get her. I will give one hundred dollars, and all reasonable charges paid in either case, if brought home.

THE MILESIAN'S GRAVE.

Inscribed to the Hon. R. C. Melvin.

Stranger, if eastward in thy way,
A moment pause by yonder glen;
And if thy heart be gentle, stay,
And breathe a sigh, and raise a pray'r
For him whose sorrows slumber there.

But if in Passion's tempests cast,
The slave of pleasure or of pride—
If thy cold heart can only know
The sigh that heaves for selfish woe,
And if thine eye refuse the tear,
To pity and to misery dear,
Pass on—nor with unhallowed tread
Profane the quiet of the dead.

The wandering peasant seeks it not,
For 'tis a lone though lovely spot;
The softest green that nature's hand
Hath scatter'd o'er her fav'rite land,
Here forms a contrast, strangely fair,
To the near mountain dark and bare,
On whose bleak side and shadowy height,
Hang winter's gloom and nature's night.

That spot, with spring's green beauty crown'd, [round,
And flowers and fragrance blooming
In hallow'd shade appears to shun
The glories of the noontide sun.
Yet does his morning splendor rise
Full on the spot where Connal lies,
And evening's radiance, meek and fair,
In parting brightness, lingers there.

When the loud winds, in mighty sweep,
Come rushing o'er the hoary deep;
When the black tempest in its birth,
With gathering thunder shakes the earth;
The spirits of the storm less rude
Within that holy solitude,
Bid the wild winds less fiercely rave,
Where the lone cypress bows to wave
Its branches o'er the Rebel's grave.

Stranger, if Erin gave thee birth,
Tread lightly o'er this sacred earth—
If Persecution's blight away
Obscure with gloom thy rising day—
If cold Oppression's dead'ning hand
Fall heavy on thy native land,
Here let thy kindred sorrows flow,

Or if, perchance, thy happier state
Place thee beyond O'Meven's fate;
If thou canst aid thy country's cause,
And share her blessings and her laws;
If home's sun for thee may shine—
If hope and glory may be thine,
Oh! be not the unworthy just
To him whose spirit warm'd this dust—
From him the path to Hope's career
Was guarded by the fiend Despair;
'Twas his, to bow and bear the brand
Mark'd by Exclusion's withering hand;
'Twas his, with nameless death to cope,
"To know the soldier's risk, without the soldier's hope."

For him let angel mercy plead,
The native sanctify the dead,
And Valor's sigh, and Woman's tear,
Embalm the heart that moulders here.

Connal, though sleep'st—but Memory owns
The hallowed turf that shades thy bones;
Her lamp shall light thy lonely tomb,
And laurels of immortal bloom,
Memorial of the buried brave,
Shall shadow the Milesian's grave.

[Irish paper.

The late Governor M'Kean, of Pennsylvania, in a letter to the ex-president Adams, relates the following anecdote of General Wilkinson:—"With respect to General Wilkinson, I recollect an Anecdote; he was in 1777 an aid to General Gates, and by him sent to Congress at Yorktown, in Pennsylvania, with the despatches, giving an account of the surrender of Sir John Burgoine, and the British army to America at Saratoga; on the way, he spent a day at Reading, about 40 miles from Yorktown, with a lady from Philadelphia, whom he afterwards married. When the despatches were read in Congress, propositions were made for paying a proper compliment to the favorite of General Gates, who brought us such pleasing news. Governor Samuel Adams, with a grave and solemn face, moved Congress that "the young gentleman should be presented with a "FAIR OR SPEED."

ALEXANDRIA:
MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Saturday, January 17, 1818.

Arising from a misconception (I believe) of something which fell in the course of the examination of a witness in the case of col. Anderson on Thursday, a long conversation took place yesterday on the subject of the clerks in the several departments of the executive government. It was suggested that some of them were employed as agents for persons having claims on government. Mr. Holmes, of Mass. offered for the adoption of the house a resolution that a committee should be appointed to enquire whether any, and, if any, what clerks in either of the departments had conducted themselves improperly in their official duties.

Mr. Colston said that he did intend to vote for some measure of this kind on the suggestions which had been dropt yesterday respecting Mr. Edwards; but as Edwards was now found not to be one of the clerks, and as he saw no grounds for suspicion, he would vote against the resolution.

Mr. Talmadge was in favor of the resolution, not because he believed the rumors which prevailed, but because, as such rumors were afloat, he thought they ought in justice to be enquired into.

Mr. Comstock said that so far as he knew, the conduct of the clerks was correct, but as suspicions had gone abroad, he thought the matter ought to be investigated.

Mr. Colston said that here suspicion was no ground for so broad a resolution.

Mr. Parris said that he often found the heads of departments in the offices a full hour before the subordinate clerks; some of whom were frequently absent whole days.

Mr. Sterrs thought that the enquiry should be confined to the precise case complained of, and, therefore, proposed an amendment to make the enquiry "whether clerks had received any compensation beyond what is prescribed by law."

General Harrison thought that the heads of departments ought to be included in the enquiry, as they were more to blame than the clerks themselves for their misconduct.

Mr. Rea thought there was great danger in clerks being permitted to receive pay as agents to persons having claims, as they might misrepresent cases to their principals. He had heard it said that clerks did receive payment for agency—he was against the amendment.

Mr. Parris agreed with gen. Harrison that it was the duty of the heads of departments to see that the clerks did their business and were out of the way of corruption, and, therefore, he was against the amendment.

Mr. Holmes opposed the amendment, and said it was no time to be delicate.—If honest, the persons would be glad of enquiry.

Mr. Comstock was against the amendment.

Mr. Lowndes said he thought it but fair to mention that the secretaries of the departments were deliberating upon the subject of forbidding the clerks to engage as agents. He believed that permission had been given to them to act as agents upon a persuasion that it would be of use to the citizens who employed them; and he had reason to believe that the rumors which had gone abroad had already had a preventive effect upon some of those persons.

Mr. Sterrs' amendment was negatived even that the question was again on the resolution.

Mr. Pindall opposed it. It would, if adopted, have the effect to impair executive responsibility—for if they wrested the inquisitorial power from the hands of the executive, the executive, of course, ceased to be responsible.

Mr. Edwards voted for the resolution, in mere justice to the individuals suspected.

General Bloomfield said that the proper mode of proceeding would be to represent the matter to the heads of departments.

Mr. Rich moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Whiteman observed that surely there was more respect due to the heads of departments, who were responsible for the conduct of their clerks, than to send a committee into their offices to examine into them. It was fitter, he said, to call on the heads of departments to make a report to the house on the subject.

Mr. Southard was surprised to see such an enquiry opposed. He felt no delicacy at all about making the enquiry.

The resolution was carried and a committee of seven was appointed.

COLONEL JOHN ANDERSON.

Mr. Forsyth moved that colonel John Anderson should be brought to the bar on Wednesday next, and reprimanded.

General Harrison adverting to the injury which the claimants to whom colonel Anderson was agent might sustain by delay, proposed that he should be brought up on Monday.

General Smyth proposed that he should be brought up immediately. This was agreed to and he was accordingly brought, and the speaker performed the office of reprimanding him with a mild solemnity that did him honor. He said that in proportion as the house was delighted with the high character that had been given to him by the witnesses as a moral man, and a brave and useful citizen, was the regret profound with which it was called upon to reprimand him for the very heinous offence which had been laid to his charge, and substantiated against him.

Colonel Anderson was then discharged.

"Inclosed is a price current for your inspection, and hope you will therein find some articles worthy of your attention. It is to be hoped that the embarrassing effects proceeding from the tedious wars, both on the Spanish Main and kingdom of Mexico, will shortly subside, as their principal causes have been removed, which circumstance offers a fair opportunity to speculators. By a late arrival from St. Thomas we have been acquainted of the Independent general Zarate's passing over to the Royalists, with the greatest part of the troops under his command; and by very recent news received from Vera Cruz, have been informed of the fate of general Mina, who was made prisoner on the 27th October at a place called Venadito, near Panchique. Exportations of flour, beef and pork begin to be pretty general;—they will, therefore, to all appearance, continue in price. The great demand for sugars and coffee, for the European markets, has of late had the effect of raising their respective prices, but the crops of cane being this year very abundant, sugars must necessarily lower in price in the course of three or four weeks, but the article of coffee, I am afraid, will maintain its present quotations, as the crops have generally failed."

AMELIA ISLAND.

DOCUMENTS ACCOMPANYING THE MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT TO CONGRESS, ON THE 16TH INSTANT.

Department of War,
July 17, 1817.

Sir,—Circumstances having made it necessary to occupy, without delay, Point Petre, and the St. Mary's river, by a military and naval force, I have to request that you will instruct the officer whom, in pursuance of the order issued through the adjutant general, you may detail to take command at Point Petre, to co-operate with the officer commanding the naval force on that station, in such measures as may be deemed necessary for the preservation of the peace and tranquility of that section of the country, which there is reason to apprehend may be disturbed in consequence of the contest between the Spanish Royalists and Patriots, for the occupation of the adjacent territory. The officer will also be instructed to use due vigilance to prevent the violation of the revenue laws of the United States, and in particular to prevent the illicit introduction of slaves into the United States; and in order to do this the more effectually, he will prohibit all vessels freighted with slaves from entering the river St. Mary's.

I have the honor to be, &c.
GEO. GRAHAM.

The officer commanding at Charleston, S. C.

Extract of a letter from George Graham, acting secretary of war, to major James Bankhead, Charleston, S. C. dated November 12, 1817.

"I am instructed by the President to direct you to repair immediately to Point Petre, with the effective force under your command, leaving only an officer and a few men as a guard at forts Moultrie and Johnson. Captain Wilson has been ordered to repair with his company, now at Fort Johnson, North Carolina, to Point Petre, and a detachment of new recruits, under the command of captain Hook, who was on his route to join the 4th infantry, has also been ordered to that place. The troops enumerated above, and those now stationed at Point Petre, will constitute a force of more than two hundred men, of which you will take the command until the arrival of general Gaines. A remittance of five thousand dollars has been made to your battalion quartermaster, whom you will take with you; and you will make requisitions for the necessary supply of provisions on the contractor's agents. It will be advisable to take from Charleston a supply of salted meat and a sufficient quantity of flour and hard bread to serve two hundred and fifty men for thirty days at least."

Department of War,
Nov. 12, 1817.

Sir,—It appearing to the satisfaction of the President that the persons who have lately taken possession of Amelia Island have done it without the sanction of any of the Spanish colonies, or of any organised government whatever, and for purposes unfriendly to, and incompatible with, the interests of the United States, he has decided to break up that establishment and take temporary possession of Amelia Island: for this purpose the troops ordered to assemble at Point Petre will co-operate with the naval force which has been ordered to St. Mary's, under the command of captain Henley.

It is the anxious wish of the President that this should be accomplished without the effusion of blood; and he confidently hopes that the force destined for the purpose will be of such an imposing character as to induce those persons who now have the military occupation of the island to abandon it without the exercise of force; but, if it should be found to be indispensably necessary, force must be used. You will, therefore, immediately on the arrival of captain Henley at St. Mary's, and, in conjunction with him, despatch an officer to demand the abandonment of the island by those who now exercise authority there, and take such other measures as may be deemed proper to obtain the peaceable possession of it; also for the preservation of the property of those persons who were residents of the island when it was first captured by general M'Gregor. Should your demand for the evacuation of Amelia be complied with, you will then occupy with a part of your force the position of Fernandina, and take care that the cannon and other implements of war which belonged to the port when captured by general M'Gregor are not taken off.

If peaceable possession of the island, however, cannot be obtained, and it should be the opinion of captain Henley and yourself that your joint forces are not competent to the prompt and certain reduction of the naval and military forces which may then occupy the harbor and post of Fernandina, you will, in that event, make a requisition on gen. Floyd, or such other officer as may command that division of the militia of Georgia in which Point Petre is situated, for a force not exceeding five hundred men, to be held in readiness to march at a moment's warning, and await the arrival of general Gaines, who has been ordered to Point Petre, for ulterior measures.

You will take with you from Charleston the necessary military stores, and such heavy cannon as may be required for the reduction of the fort on Amelia Island in the event of resistance.

As no answer has been received to the communication addressed to you from this department on the 17th July last, it becomes necessary to request that the receipt of this may be acknowledged, and that you also advise this department regularly of your movements.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c.
GEORGE GRAHAM.

Major James Bankhead,
Commanding at Charleston, S. C.

Fernandina, Amelia Island,
December 24, 1817.

Sir,—I have the honor to lay before you the correspondence held with gen. Aury, the late commander of this place, and to inform you that the American flag was raised here yesterday afternoon.

Several days will elapse before gen. Aury can withdraw his followers, but I have taken every measure to ensure tranquility, by ordering all his black soldiers to be embarked on board one of the ships lying in the port, and by not suffering any person to appear in the town with arms but his officers; and the moment their vessels are prepared to receive the whole of them they shall depart.

Most of the inhabitants of this place, at this time, are followers of Aury, and those persons who have been drawn here from motives of speculation, who are, I suspect, of that profligate character generally engaged in the violation or evasion of our revenue laws. I shall, therefore, consult with commodore Henley, and will enforce such regulations as may be most likely to preserve order, until I receive instructions from the government.

Until this place is completely evacuated by this band of Negroes and privateersmen, I have deemed it prudent to keep the whole of my force here. On their departure I shall move all but one company to Point Petre.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your most obd't. serv't.
JAS. BANKHEAD.

Major 1st battalion artillery, S. D. commanding detachment U. S. troops.

George Graham, esq.
Acting Sec'y. of War.

Fernandina, Amelia Island,
Dec. 27, 1817.

Sir—I had the honor to forward to the War Department, on the 24th inst. a copy of the correspondence with Gen. Aury, previous to the landing of the troops under my command; and I herewith send a duplicate of the same.

Some difficulty has arisen from a want of competent authority, to settle the disputed claims of the residents of this place against the late government and the followers of Aury, who do not seem disposed to comply with their engagements.

One or two vessels have arrived here with cargoes, which the owners are desirous to land, and it might be improper to permit it without obtaining security for the duties which the laws of the U. States require; and other vessels loaded in this port have met with some delay in clearing for their destination; but the counsel of Gen. Gaines, who arrived here last will regulate my conduct, and will, in a great measure, relieve my anxiety.

I have been obliged to exercise my authority, as commanding officer at this place, to preserve order; and I am happy to say, that nothing unpleasant has occurred. I cannot say when Gen. Aury and his party will sail. Their vessels are much out of order, and their arrangements to that effect progress but slowly. The morning after I landed, I ordered the black and French troops to be embarked on board some of their vessels; and the crews of their privateers, and mariners of all nations, whom it is difficult to restrain from violence and excess, are still here.

Until I am honored with your instructions, I hope that the course I may pursue may meet the approbation of the President.

General Gaines leaves this for the southern frontier of Georgia the day after to-morrow.

I have the honor to be, with high respect, your most obedient servant,
JAS. BANKHEAD,
Major 1st battalion artillery, and commanding this post.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Jan. 18th, 1818.

Sir,—I have the honor to enclose, herewith, copies of orders to Captain John H. Elton, and Com. John D. Henley, in relation to Amelia Island; also a letter from the latter officer, communicating information of the surrender of that place to the military and naval force of the United States, together with the correspondence which took place on that occasion.

I have the honor to be, with the highest respect, sir, your most obedient servant,
B. W. CROWNINSHIELD,
To the President of the U. States.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
July 16, 1817.

Sir,—Proceed immediately with the U. S. brig Saranac under your command to the river St. Mary's in Georgia, and inform the military commander of your arrival, and of the objects specially designated to you in these orders.

The recent occupation of Amelia Island by an officer in the service of the Spanish revolutionists, occasions just apprehensions, that from the vicinity to the coast of Georgia, attempts will be made to introduce slaves into the U. States, contrary to the existing laws; and further attempts at illicit trade in smuggling goods in violation of our revenue laws.

You are hereby directed to detain and search every vessel, under whatever flag, which may enter the river St. Mary's or be found hovering upon the coast under suspicious circumstances, and seize every vessel freighted with slaves, or whose doubtful character and situation shall indicate an intention of smuggling.

In the execution of these orders you will take special care not to intercept or detain any vessels with regular papers, and of a national character, upon lawful voyages to or from a port or ports of the United States.

The traffic in slaves is intended to be restrained, and, in the performance of this duty, you will exercise your sound judgment in regard to all vessels you may visit.

Communicate frequently to this department, every event connected with this service, and, if it shall be found necessary, a further naval force will be sent, either to strengthen your command, or to relieve you so as to pursue your original destination. If you find it necessary upon your arrival at St. Mary's to employ a good pilot well acquainted with the coast, rivers, and inlets, you are authorised to do so.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
B. W. CROWNINSHIELD.

Mr. Blackburn moved, that the testimony taken by the committee should be read.

Mr. Lane moved that the original resolution under which the committee had acted, should also be read.

These papers being accordingly read,

Mr. Garth moved to lay the resolution on the table, to give the members time to consider a question of such importance to the commonwealth.

This motion was supported by Messrs. Scott and Blackburn—and acquiesced in by Mr. Chamberlayne, who however expressed a hope, that the resolution would be again taken up on (this day).

To the Flour and Rice Millers OF THE UNITED STATES.

GENTLEMEN,—It appears that many have refused to pay for license to use my improvements in the art of manufacturing flour, and in lessening the labor in rice mills, waiting the decision of the United States' courts; while many others have paid freely the sums I demanded for my license; there can exist no reason why some should pay and others be exempt. There has already been a sufficient number of decisions establishing the law, that each infringer is liable to pay treble my actual damages, which cannot be rated at less than the value of the use of my property during the infringement. I have expended the greatest part of a long, arduous, and indefatigable life in study and exertions to invent and introduce into useful operation several important and highly useful improvements, from which great benefits are derived to the users, and I could have put in operation many more equally useful, but was prevented by the unjustifiable opposition, wasting the profits of those in operation, which I had intended to apply to put others in operation which I had discovered; but which now lay dormant, to my great mortification and the public injury. I come into the courts claiming remuneration for my time and labor—the great expenses that I have incurred in advertising repeatedly over the United States, and in my agents travelling for many years to make the utility of the improvements known, and to instruct millwrights to make, and millers to use them. The law contemplates that I shall receive ample remuneration, and by it I was encouraged to risk the great expenses. I have repeatedly published that the price of my license for the remainder of the term should be, the full price of the labor and boarding saved by the use of my improvements in one year only, with lawful interest until paid; but to those who infringed my rights, and refused to pay when called on, I would, beginning with the year ending January 22, 1813, count the sum saved in labor and boarding during the last year (equal to the first price) as a new sum becoming due, and running on interest also; and so on, the 22d day of January in each and every year thereafter a new sum saved in labor and boarding becomes due, and runs on interest until license be purchased, demanding the interest only on all these sums, leaving the principal in the hands of the users; which is the least I can receive of them to meet the expenses which they have compelled me to incur. The above are now the only terms on which my agents are instructed to grant licenses, and they are instructed to institute suits against all infringers without giving them another call.

Those who wish to purchase licenses may apply to John Love, esq. Buckland, Prince William county, or to capt. John Moody, Richmond, Va.

OLIVER EVANS.

Note.—Persons using Mr. Evans' improvements, or parts of them, unpaid for, will be sued if they do not discharge the claim on application. Mr. William H. Alexander has, under my authority from Mr. Evans, been empowered to receive payments and deliver licenses to use his improvements. Payments, therefore, made to him, John Moody, or myself, will alone be valid, and save the expense of suit and treble damages to the defendants. JOHN LOVE.

I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor," &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them the purchaser may be apprised that they are counterfeit.

Sully for Sale.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaister of Paris acting with powerful and immediate effect on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those, now unfilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed: the outhouses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year, if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 45, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucumbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst: sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of blood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
